Medusa's Staff symbolizes

Asclepius, the Greek god of healing and medicine, carried a staff with a snake wrapped around it. This symbol of healing is called the Rod of Asclepius. Many medical groups use this symbol to promote medicine. Others use a symbol of a rod with two snakes topped by a pair of wings.

Hippocratic Oath

The Hippocratic Oath is an oath of ethics historically taken by physicians. In its original form, it requires a new physician to swear, by a number of healing gods, to uphold specific ethical standards.

The oath is the earliest expression of medical ethics in the Western world, encompassing the principles of medical confidentiality and non-maleficence

The Greek physician Hippocrates (460–370 BC)

The OATH

I swear by Apollo Physician, by Asclepius, by Hygieia, by Panacea, and by all the gods and goddesses, making them my witnesses, that I will carry out, according to my ability and judgment, this oath and this indenture.

To hold my teacher in this art equal to my own parents; to make him partner in my livelihood; when he is in need of money to share mine with him; to consider his family as my own brothers, and to teach them this art, if they want to learn it, without fee or indenture; to impart precept, oral instruction, and all other instruction to my own sons, the sons of my teacher, and to indentured pupils who have taken the physician's oath, but to nobody else.

I will use treatment to help the sick according to my ability and judgment, but never with a view to injury and wrong-doing. Neither will I administer a poison to anybody when asked to do so, nor will I suggest such a course. Similarly I will not give to a woman a pessary to cause abortion. But I will keep pure and holy both my life and my art. I will not use the knife, not even, verily, on sufferers from stone, but I will give place to such as are craftsmen therein.

Into whatsoever houses I enter, I will enter to help the sick, and I will abstain from all intentional wrong-doing and harm, especially from abusing the bodies of man or woman, bond or free. And whatsoever I shall see or hear in the course of my profession, as well as outside my profession in my intercourse with men, if it be what should not be published abroad, I will never divulge, holding such things to be holy secrets.

Now, if I carry out this oath, and break it not, may I gain for ever reputation among all men for my life and for my art; but if I break it and forswear myself, may the opposite befall me.

Translation by W.H.S. Jones.

থিম সং ফর এমসিডব্লিউএইচ

এসেছিলাম কিশোরী এক কন্যা হয়ে
মস্ত এক স্বপ্ন নিয়ে-

হবো একদিন মহীয়সী এক নারী
শ্রেষ্ঠ পেশার করবো অংশীদারী।

মানবতার করবো সেবা, যাবো হৃদয় ছুঁয়ে,
দৃঢ়তা আর অন্তহীন বিন্দ্রতা দিয়ে।

প্রিয় জননী মহাবিদ্যালয়,
স্বপ্ন আমার পূর্ণ করো
হৃদয়ে করো সূর্য উদয়।

দোআ করো হে জননী
সহমর্মীতার অনুভূতি থাকে যেন চিরদিন
সুন্দর অমলিন।

ভালোবাসি জননী মহাবিদ্যালয়,
ধন্যবাদের চোখের জলে ভাসিয়ে দেবো তোমায়
প্রিয় এমসিডব্লিউএইচ।

Theme Song for MCWH

I came as a girl
Young and sweet
With a dream

To become a gracious woman-
A member of the highest profession

To serve humanity
With infinite passion and humanity

O my dear Alma Mater
Make my dream come true,

Bless me, bless, Alma Mater
Forever my empathy,
To reign over sympathy

Love you my Alma Mater
and thank you forever
Beloved MCWH.
